MANY CHILDREN LOSE LIVES IN BIG SCHOOL FIRE

Pesbody, Mass., Oct. 28.—Perhaps more than a score of pupils of St. John's Parochial School lost their lives in a fire that started in the basement a few minutes after the morning session had opened today and swept through the three-stories of the brick and wooden school building in less than five minutes.

Nineteen of the boys and girls all in their teens, are known to have been crushed or burned to death. A score of others were injured. Of the latter, one, Mildred Meade, aged 16, died after having been removed to a hospital.

The bodies of the dead were frightfully burned and only two Elizabeth Nolan, aged 17 years, and Mary Sullivan, 16, had been identified late today. Other bodies were believed to be in the ruins and it was thought 25 had been killed or fatally injured.

There were 700 children in the building when the fire started. Its origin is in doubt. Some thought it was caused by a hot-air explosion.

PROMINENT LAYMAN WILL OCCUPY DOTHAN PULPIT

Mr. W. W. Campbell, of Tuskegee, Ala., one of the most prominent Baptist laymen in the state will occupy the pulpit at the 11 o'clock hour Sunday at the Dothan First Baptist church.

Mr. Campbell will deliver an informing address about Alabama Baptist affairs, under the auspices of the Layman's Movement. It is urged by the pastor, Rev. E. H. Jennings, that a good attendance hear this interesting speaker, especially the men of the church and community, for whom Mr. Campbell has a soul-stirring message.

Aside from the fact that Mr. Campbell is a consecrated layman, giving a large part of his time to religious work, and a tenth of his income, he is the president of the Alabama Baptist State Convention, which meets at Huntsville, November 16th. He is also a business man of large success, and in him is exemplified the fact that one may be both successful in business and in the work of the kingdom of God.

He is a brother of Mr. Chas. Campbell, of Columbia.

KAISER'S ENVY OFF ON SPECIAL GERMAN MISSION

Geneva, Oct. 29.—Prince von Buelow, the former German imperial chancellor, accompanied by two other persons, is expected here. It is reported that his visit will be in connection with a special mission for the German government, says The Tribune, and that he will meet another diplomat in Switzerland.

4,000 PUPILS ARE HERE AT THE FAIR

Four thousand school children happy as children may be on such gala occasions, passed within the fair gates this morning, breaking the record of educational day of last year in attendance. The attendance of children on Friday last year was about 1500.

This will be the banner day of the fair. Incoming trains are packed with visitors, and several excursion trains brought great multitudes of visitors. The Elba special brought some 700 while the special from Blakely was also filled. The regular trains are full.

The congestion on the road to the fair grounds is noteworthy. A steady stream of automobiles keep continuously on the go.

A program of foot races, etc., were carried out this morning, while the regular program, including horse racing and a monoplane flight is scheduled for the afternoon.

Children in Parade

The school children formed in parade and marched to the grounds this morning, this being the longest line of parade possibly ever seen in Southeast Alabama.

Will Sell at a bargain 10 shares of Stock. In Southeast Alabama Fair Association. Address Mrs. J. W. Hollas, Dothan, Ala.

WILSON ASKS CLARK FOR A CONFERENCE

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Wilson has sent word to Champ Clark, Speaker of the House, that he would like to see him here at any convenient time in the next month. This was taken here to mean that the President is determined to line up Congress before it convenes on the Administration program for national defense.

The Republican leaders of the House and Senate, Representative Mann and Senator Gallinger, will then call at the White House to confer regarding the national defense plans.

HIDES 19 YEARS FOR CRIME LONG FORGIVEN

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 29.—After evading Government officials for nineteen years, Joseph B. Cunningham, 50, gave himself up to the Sheriff's office in Hammond, only to find that he was not wanted.

Cunningham said that nineteen years ago, while a general delivery clerk at the Alexandria postoffice where his brother was postmaster at the time, he stole $500 and disappeared. His brother immediately squared the shortage and Cunningham had been living in groundless fear of arrest since that time.

CROSSING COP IS MOTOR CAR CRITIC

Knows All the Strong and Weak
Points of Different Makes

STARTS MANY A RACE In Leisure Hours Sometimes Drives His Own Car In Competition.

In the present era of long-distance automobile racing, Official Starter Fred J. Wagner is a busy man if he sends away three fields in a month.

To the average crossing policeman in any big American city, a job like this would seem like nothing to do. For there isn't a day goes by during which, acting in his official capacity, the cop doesn't start at least a hundred dashes, with fields ranging from four to twenty or more cars competing.

Just as the star professionals in Wagner's fields jockey for position to employ all their skill to get the best of the getaway, so maneuver the pilots of the roadsters and touring cars that line up for the blue-coated officer of the law. Most of them are as anxious to get the jump on the other fellow as if there was $20,000 waiting for them at the next crossing.

With such opportunities, it is no wonder that the crossing policeman becomes a good judge of automobiles and on intimate terms with their characteristics. His ideal is the car that, day in and day out, shows ahead of the rest in the dash that starts with traffic.

GOVERNOR OF TEXAS WANTS END TO RAIDS

Washington, Oct. 28.—Governor Ferguson, of Texas, today appealed to President Wilson by wire to bring all possible pressure to bear on General Carranza to stop the raids along the Texas border.

Secretary Tammly earlier today announced that Governor Ferguson had appealed for more troops. This afternoon the Secretary said that report was wrong and that all the Texas Governor wanted was for the President to get assurances from Carranza that he would stop the raids from the Mexican side.

the toot of his whistle. Now and then he becomes himself a motorist as did Traffic Officer Guy McAfee of the Los Angeles squad, who appeared one day at the Maxwell agency and demanded to know what sort of gasoline they were using to make the new 1916 models so brisk in the crossing dashes.

An obliging salesman showed the officer that the car could do it all on the staple product. "I've been watching 'em for sometime," commented McAfee. "Now I'm going to own one. If anybody beats me past my mate when I'm off duty it'll be my fault and not the car's for there's something about these babies that acts like pep."

Up to date McAfee hasn't lost a heat. It is his chief delight to show his fellow Los Angeles motorists how a good driver and a good car work together in the dash that starts with traffic.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 28.—The government's petition in the Sherman suit against the United States Steel corporation was today in federal court. It is taken as a matter of course a hearing of the highest federal court. fully as some of the supposedly more erudite and sophisticated politicians dare. He tells a story of one Cal Collins, a blacksmith and a native of his own state, who was extraordinarily shrewd though his standard of morals evidently was not as high as it might have been.

Early one election day a farmer called at Cal's shop to have his horse shod. "Purdy busy this mornin', Cal?" he asked.

"Yes," the blacksmith answered. "Hardly got time to go down and vote."

"Well," said the farmer, "I'm hinder busy myself. Tell you what we'll do," he added after thinking a moment. "As you're a Democrat and I'm a Republican, let's pair off, some as our tellers in Congress do, and neither of us will have to go to the election. What do you say?"

Cal promptly agreed. Some time after the election it was discovered that the blacksmith had "paired off" with every republican that had come to his shop that day.

THE TRUTH ABOUT PALMISTRY.

From the Strand.

The life of a fortune teller is not always an easy one, but what I learned during my professional career in this line taught me one thing—and that was that my troubles were as atoms to my huge burden of trouble that many of my "patients" had to bear, writes Herbert Illingworth.

Women, as a rule, are easy to read—first because they are so easily classified in respect to age and appearance, and secondly owing to their inability to keep silent.

"Patients," unknowingly tell the palmist the answers to questions—not directly, but through a system all our own we get the answers. This system is almost perfect, and built up from reading and meeting thousands of persons yearly.

Take, for example, the question: How can you tell whether a person is married? To begin with, depends upon your "patient's" age, which you can guess from observation and from the skin of the back of the hand. The condition of the nail filament will help also, if you are deceived by a well-preserved man or woman.

Here is an illustration: Your "patient" is a woman about 35 years old, very well dressed, nails well manicured, and altogether a fascinating "patient." She is wearing no rings. This, in itself, arouses suspicion, for you know there is not one woman out of a hundred who does not wear a ring of some kind. This makes you think that she may have removed her wedding ring before she entered the room. The ring, however, will probably leave a mark, which you can easily find on her finger. If the finger is thin and gives nothing for guidance, I say to her, "There is sickness marked on this line for the oldest child in the family." Her manner will soon indicate whether she is married or not.

There are a few "patients" who are or have been married, and have no children. These are in the minority, and they will either tell you they have no children, or will ask you if you mean the "oldest child in their mother's family." The result is—the same.

The fortune teller now has a store of information to work on, for the answer to this question is the very keystone of the arch. With it I build up the parents' life-story from the age of their largest guns are 7.5 inches, of which she carried four. She has six 6-inch, two 3-inch and 22 3-pound guns and two torpedo tubes.

COUGHED CONTINUALLY

Day and Night—Man Says Nothing Helped But Vinol.

That statement does not surprise us. We have told the people of Dothan many times during the last ten years that Vinol is the greatest remedy for chronic coughs and colds that we ever sold. Mr. Dunning says:

"I took a heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough. It seemed as though I coughed continually day and night, so I could not sleep. I was all run down and so weak I could hardly keep about. I tried different cough medicines but seemed to get worse instead of better. I went to the drug store and got a bottle of Vinol. Before it was half gone I was better and its continued use cured my cough, built me up and I am feeling fine." Benj. Dunning, 208 Tenth Ave., Scranton, Pa.

Vinol is not a palliative like cough syrups, but it is a constitutional remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis, which removes the cause and stops the cough, and the recovery of Mr. Dunning was due to the healing medicinal extractives of fresh cods' livers without oil, aided by the strengthening, revitalizing effect of tonics iron and beef peptone which are contained in Vinol. BRITISH CRUISER IS RUN AGROUND AND MAY BE TOTAL WRECK

London, Oct. 28.—The British cruiser Argyll has run aground and may be a total wreck. All hands were rescued. This was made known by the Admiralty today in the following announcement:

"H. M. S. Argyll, Capt. James Tancred, R. N., grounded this morning off the east coast of Scotland. Owing to bad weather prevailing, it is feared she may become a total wreck. All her officers and the crew have been saved."

The Argyll, 1,085 tons displacement, was laid down in 1902. Her normal complement is 655. She is 450 feet long. Her

REALLY WATER-

PROOF TENTS

Used by Robinson's Famous Shows.

"Waterproof tents" is a title term that has been so much abused that it has nearly lost its meaning. Mercerized duck, a new and expensive material, absolutely waterproof, is used exclusively by the Robinson's Famous Shows in the construction of their tented city. Patrons can rest assured that, no matter how hard it rains, not a drop can come through to soil their clothing or mar their pleasure.

So far as we know, Robinson's is the only show that has gone to the extra expense of this material. It added two thousand dollars to the cost of the Robinson outfit, which is considerable when you understand that these tents last only one short season on the road. But in this, as in every other detail, the matter of cost has been entirely disregarded by the management of this show in providing for their patrons the very best of everything. From the finest special trains of cars, down to the tent stakes, which are of imported Mexican Bois d'Ara, this same discriminating care has been exercised.

So don't let the weather interfere with your visiting this great exhibition; you will find everything dry, clean and safe, even if old probs is doing his worst.

Two performances will be given at Dothan, Nov. 6.

BETRAYED BY WOMAN FIGHTS SLEUTH POSSE

Chicago, Oct. 28.—After his hiding place had been betrayed by a woman, Joseph Novello, a young Italian, wanted by the police on a charge of assault on a woman, was brought to trial on October 15 he walked out of the criminal courtroom when no one was watching. In spite of his absence the trial was concluded, he was found guilty and sentenced to serve from one to fourteen years in prison.

NEW CABINET HAS DESIGNED

cabinet.

The cabinet in its new form will not be ready to appear before Parliament this afternoon, according to the impression prevailing in political circles.

Paul Deschanel, President of the Chamber, will move an adjournment until tomorrow, when the work of reconstruction will be complete.

Information now available indicates that Briand will become Foreign Minister, as well as Premier, with Jules Cambon, who was Ambassador to Germany at the outbreak of the war, as his principal secretary.

In addition to M. Viviani, probable designations are:

Minister of War—Gen. J. S. Gallieni, Military Governor of Paris.

Minister of Marine—Rear Admiral La Caze.

Minister of Agriculture—Etienne Clementel, former Minister of Agriculture and Finance.

Minister of Commerce—L. L. Klotz, former Minister of the Interior and of Finance, or Joseph Thierry, Under Secretary in the Ministry of War.

Minister of Instruction—Emile

Combes, former Premier.

The other members of the present cabinet, according to this program, will continue in their present positions.

The Journal states that there will be six ministers of state without portfolios, of whom four will be Senators and two Deputies.

It is also said the under secretariats will not be filled except in the case of the Minister of War in which department Albert Thomas is to be continued in office, in charge of the output of munitions.

Conferences relative to the ministerial situation were continued during the morning with the idea of reshaping the cabinet so as to command united support. Indications were that the general features of the readjustment had been virtually decided upon.

The belief was expressed by persons in close touch with the situation that Premier Viviani's long service had taxed his strength severely, and that he desired to rest, as well as to bring forward some strong figure, who would unite all elements as his successor.

It is expected that M. Millerand, Minister of War, will be associated with the new cabinet.

Of Cabinet Not Expected

Paris, Oct. 28.—Since the resignation of Theophile Delcasse, the famous French statesman, as Foreign Minister on October 13, it has been understood that there would be further changes in the cabinet, but reports from Paris previously have not indicated that such a sweeping reorganization, involving the withdrawal of M. Viviani from the premiership was to be made.

OLD-TIME REMEDIES.

From the Pathfinder.

Because Americans buy and use such large quantities of patent medicines that many manufacturers have made large fortunes in the business one might naturally conclude that there is a great deal physically wrong with the people of this country and that this is the age of patent medicines, but it appears that secret medical preparations were made and vended in large quantities many centuries ago. Indeed a few of these secret remedies became so popular and were considered of so much value to niling humanity that the reigning monarchs in past centuries bought the secrets from their discoverers, paying for them large sums of money. It has been found, for example, that King Louis XIV of France paid handsome sums for three such preparations, namely, Helvetius' ipecac remedy, Glanber's kermis mineral and Talbor's cinchona remedy.

It would seem that some of the early secret remedies must have possessed some merit for some that were patented as early as the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries are now standard remedies, being highly esteemed and sold in large quantities. An interesting and unusual fact in connection with some of the medicines which made their debut as patent remedies is that they are now held in good repute by practicing physicians who prescribe them for their patients. Among these are Fowler's solution of potassium arsenate which was first made by an apothecary named Fowler who kept the remedy a secret and refused to admit that it contained arsenic. Another is paregoric, which was originated by Dr. Le Mort of the Leyden university, and still another is Dover's powders, first prepared by Thomas Dover, a doctor and pirate. Common bicarbonate of soda, which is universally used in cooking, was originated under the name of "universal salt" by a Berlin apothecary.

Although all modern physicians look with contempt on patent medicines some of the earliest of the preparations were introduced by physicians. For example, one Dr. Gregory, a professor of medicine at Edinburgh, originated a compound powder of rhubarb; Dr. Turner, a distinguished surgeon of London, introduced an ointment—calamie ointment—and Dr. Sydenham, a noted English physician, brought out wine of opium.

Walter L. Sholz, Robert Fay and Paul Daechle, suspected German bomb plotters now under arrest at Weehawken, N. J., and some of the bomb-making materials found in Fay's room. It is believed that the three men, who have been watched by secret service men for several weeks were implicated in a conspiracy to blow up munition ships leaving this country for England and France. A map of New York harbor and a speedy motorboat was also a part of the equipment of the three. Fay is said to be a German lieutenant, while Sholz is regarded as a German reservist. Daechle says he is a graduate of Cologne University.

Raise Your Mules

You can raise mules cheaper than you can buy them.

We have a car load of half-breed Purcheron mares, brought here for breeding purposes. They are all well broken, and some with foal, some just weaned colts. Buy a mare and quit buying high priced mules.
